

Name WALLARAH PENINSULA JETTY
Client Stockland Wallarah Peninsula Pty Ltd

Project Description

- Construction of 75m long timber jetty using timber piles
- Scope also involved design and construction of jetty lighting, provision for potable water to the end of the jetty and installation of aluminium grating as decking to maintain light through to the existing sea grass beds

Site Location Murray's Beach, Swansea

Value $400,000

Duration August 2006 to Nov 2006

Referees Matt Pike - 0439 355 133

Key Personnel Project Manager – Ben Read

Significant Achievements Scope of works completed on time and budget with minimal disturbance to existing sea grass beds and lake edge.